tells your audience: The only men you are going to meet at home on your couch are Ben and Jerry.

Show Topics

- Share dating disasters and triumphs
- Car flirt like a pro
- Get over your fear of rejection
- Don't treat your friends like lobsters
- Acronyms... dating hazards?
- WWVD What Would Virginia do?

- 44% of adult Americans are single, according to U.S. Census figures. This means there are over 100 million unattached out there.
- Car flirting, seems everyone's at it! According to AVIS rental service 72% of women questioned admitted to car flirtation and 65% of the men.
- The Road from Rejection; No one appeals to everyone's tastes. We all have preferences, so if they reject you, it just means that you don't fit the description of what they desire. Approach as many people as possible. Increase your chances of finding the one that is looking for a catch like you.
- Only 9% of women and 2% of men say they've found their relationship at a bar or club—so where do we meet Mr or Miss Right?

Frances Rostick & Audrey LaChance

Two dating divas met over sousaphones in college marching band (a surprising hotbed of talented kissers.)

These ladies wrote a book filled with unbelievably true stories of their search for the fabled "one" (no, not Jesus. Wrong Book.)

Witty and well-spoken this dynamic duo will add laughter and light up your phone lines.
